LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES.

VOL. II. LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 7, 1882. NO. 3.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES

Rumor that Folger is to be Succeeded by Cameron.

Startling Revelations of Counterfeiters—The Republicans Carry Oregon—A Desperado Shot.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

NEW YORK, June 6.—The Herald's Washington special says: Among the political rumors that are circulated this evening is one that Folger will soon resign and that he is to be succeeded by Don Cameron, who, in his turn, is to have for his successor in the Senate his father, ex-Senator Cameron.

JEFFERSON'S REMAINS.

A letter has been received from the attorney of the heirs of Thomas Jefferson refusing to allow his remains to be moved.

STAR ROUTE.

Wilson, this morning, began opening the argument for the defense in the Star Route cases.

ANOTHER UNSUCCESSFUL MOVE FOR GUITEAU.

This morning as Reed, counsel for Guiteau, appeared before Judge Wylie, in the Criminal Court, and asked to have the record corrected as to counts in the indictment, alleging that the late President died in the District of Columbia, he stated that he has other motions in view which necessitated a clean record. Judge Wylie denied the motion. He did not deny the power of the Court to correct its records, but it was not for him, in another term and having no personal knowledge of the record, to undertake to amend it. The general verdict was based upon the good counts in the indictment, the Court in passing sentence shutting its eyes to the vicious counts.

RAILROAD RIGHT OF WAY.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Cameron, of Wisconsin, introduced a bill in the Senate to-day granting the right of way to Arizona of the Southern Pacific Railroad on a strip of land two hundred feet wide through the Papago Indian reservation in Arizona. Delegate Ouray introduced a similar bill in the House.

EXPOSURE OF A COUNTERFEITER.

CHICAGO, June 6.—The Times' Washington special says that the counterfeiter, Brockaway's, statement regarding the counterfeits and plates is confirmed by government experts, which places upon the Bureau of Engraving and Printing the charge that transfers were taken from the Government plates while in possession of the bureau. It is understood that Doyle's testimony confirms Brockaway's and that he will get off on the evidence furnished by him to convict the Government employes. It is understood from high authority that Secretary Folger has found five plates missing, including that of the silver certificate, and that a great deal of currency has been duplicated though how far it has gone into circulation is not known.

THE RETIREMENT BILL.

In the Senate a long debate was held on the bill regarding the retirement of officers from the United States Army. The Senate adjourned without any action on the bill.

POSTOFFICE MATTERS.

Postoffice established—Artesia, Los Angeles county, William M. Wilson, Postmaster. Theodore Rutt has been appointed Postmaster at Pomona, Los Angeles county.

Oregon Republicans Victorious.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—A Portland dispatch says: The count up to noon shows that last night's estimates were correct. The Republican State ticket is certainly elected. George's friends claim his re-election by 2,000. The returns are insufficient to make an estimate on the Legislature. There is no perceptible falling off in the Republican vote, and as the last Legislature was Republican, the probabilities are strongly in favor of this Legislature being Republican. The Democrats claim that the Legislature is in doubt, but concede George's election and most of the Repuolican State ticket.

From Denver to Salt Lake.

SALT LAKE, June 6.—The western end of the Denver & Rio Grande is nearly completed to Salt Lake. All the force possible will be put on to have through trains running from Denver to Salt Lake by the first of January.

A Noted Desperado Killed.

TUCSON, A. T., June 6.—Last night John Murphy shot and killed Jim Levy, a noted desperado. The trouble originated over a game of faro. Levy threatened Murphy several time during the evening, and sent him word to be ready, as he would kill him on sight. About 11 o'clock Murphy and Dan Gibson were passing the Palace Hotel and met Levy and opened fire, killing him instantly. Levy was well known on this coast, the Black Hills and Colorado. He has killed seven men.

Blaine will not run for Congress.

AUGUSTA, Me., June 6.—A call signed by influential Republicans to the number of several thousand, asking Blaine to be the candidate at large for representative in Congress, is published. Blaine replies declining, pleading twenty-three years of public service and neglected private duties.

Grant Denies that he is Bankrupt.

NEW YORK, June 6.—General Grant denies the reports of his business losses and bankruptcy, and says they are put out for stock-jobbing purposes.

Railroad Accident at Coney Island.

CONEY ISLAND, June 6.—This morning a runaway locomotive on the elevated railroad fell off the track at the switch of West Brighton. Nine persons were injured and the track torn up. All who were injured will recover.

Shot Her Husband Dead.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., June 6.—Saturday night, in Billings township, Anna Stevenson shot her husband, William, dead for trying to gain access to his house after she had barred him out. The parties, though married a long time, had quarreled often.

Counterfeiters Captured.

ATCHISON, Ks., June 6.—A big counterfeiting case has been unearthed at Kirwin, Kansas. George F. Best was arrested for passing counterfeit coin just from Boston. He lived in a dug-out in an eighty-acre homestead twenty miles north of there. The sheriff searched his house and found his "pal," named Hudson; also a complete set of dies of different quantities, unfinished, and counterfeit coin in different parts of the house. Best proposes to squeal, intimating that he has accomplices in the East who are interested with him in the business.

Damages of the Storm.

PETERSBURG, Va., June 6.—A storm in Northampton county, North Carolina, yesterday, ruined the cotton, corn and wheat crops. Felter's Academy and many other large buildings were demolished by the wind. The telegraph poles on the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad were blown down. Two more persons are reported killed.

Two Children Burned.

ST. LOUIS, June 6.—A heartrending accident occurred near Harris Station, on the Missouri, Kansas and Texas Railroad, this State, on Sunday last. John Jackson went to church, leaving his four children—the eldest 14 and the youngest 2 years old—locked in the house. From some unknown cause the house caught fire, and when the parents returned they found their dwelling in ruins and their children dead and burned to crisps.

Train Robbers Repulsed.

GALVESTON, June 6.—A News Dallas special says: This morning an attempt was made by four masked men to rob the west-bound express of the Missouri Pacific, near Denton. The train was flagged, but suspicion having been aroused, when the robbers attempted to board the train they were met with a volley which put them to flight. They mistook the mail for the express train. One of them was killed. A posse is in pursuit.

Fire in a Leadville Mine.

LEADVILLE, June 6. — Early this morning a fire broke out in the shaft of the Nuke & Starr mine, and the derrick was consumed before the fire was extinguished. Five men working in the drift fail to respond to the call of the bell, and it is feared they have been suffocated.

Races—English Matters.

LONDON, June 6.—At Ascott the trial stakes were won by Valentine; Mistake, formerly Lorillard, second; Leghorn, third.

In the House of Commons, in the Committee on the Repression bill, Harcourt consented to insert provisions assuring prompt trial and causing the judges for the special court to be selected by ballot instead of being appointed, and obliging the judges to state their reasons for convicting in open court.

The News denies that Dillon is going to America.

THE SITUATION.

The San Francisco Bulletin, reviewing the political situation, holds the following sensible talk:

"The Republicans have now three whole months before them to popularize their methods. If they try to continue the close corporation feature, satisfactory results cannot be secured. The hands which make the game will become more or less distinctly visible. An impetus will be received from the Independent movements at the East which may mar their work.

"Neither party in California can place implicit reliance on the armies which they propose to marshal. Thirty-two thousand Democrats and 12,000 Republicans marched out of their respective organizations in 1879, coalesced, and under the name of Workingmen struck out boldly for the control of the State. This is not a condition of things which should suggest to party managers the wisdom of setting aside the masses in their greed to secure all good things for themselves. The Democrats have reached the limit beyond which, at least for the present contest, they cannot go. The limit is a very contracted one, and rules practically out 76,000 Democrats. The Republicans have a splendid chance to take advantage of this mistake, and open up the doors to the rank and file. But whether they will do so or not is one of the propositions on which we do not care to speculate now."

Any party that ignores the popular vote in the coming election will assuredly go to the wall. Wire-pullers had as well make a note of it.

Our Book Table.

THE AFTERGLOW OF EUROPEAN TRAVEL. By Adelaide L. Harrington. 12 mo. cl. Illust. $1.50. D. Lothrop & Co. Mrs. Harrington went abroad with the Tourjee party in the summer of 1879, and took the trip usually marked out for such parties—through Scotland, England and Holland, down the Rhine through Southern Germany to Italy, returning by way of Switzerland and Paris and England. The limited amount of time allowed for the expedition prevented the tourists from visiting many points of interest, and allowed them to give but a brief examination to many others. But one can see and appreciate a great deal in a short time, and this is most assuredly the case with Mrs. Harrington. She is an ideal traveler, seeing everything that is worth seeing, and catching the spirit of all the places she visits. In Edinburgh and at Melrose she breathes the atmosphere of Scott. On the Rhine and in Switzerland she is carried away by the beauty and grandeur of the natural world. Although written nearly three years after her trip abroad, the "Afterglow" has not grown dim. Unlike many such works, there is nothing hackneyed about it. The author's style is excellent, being smooth and even throughout the whole book, and she attempts nothing that she does not fairly accomplish. It was Mrs. Harrington's intention to publish the work for private circulation merely, and it was only through the persuasion of her friends that she has allowed it to come before the public. Several well-executed pictures lend interest to the subject matter.

LABOR TROUBLES EAST.

The laborers of the Pacific Coast are looking upon the present contest in the Eastern States between poorly paid laborers and capitalists with plethoric wallets, with great interest, for it is feared the wave put in motion there may reach us here ere the troubled waters are again at rest. And it is also feared that the present showing of trouble, claimed by capitalists to be caused by over-production, may be the beginning of the financial crash prophesied by some eminent bankers as likely to occur about this time. But whether it be the beginning of a severe storm or but a momentary squall, it is nevertheless a sad picture to look upon, for in either case there is suffering for the family of the poor laborerer out of employment. With steady labor he has a hard enough time, for in the best of times there is but a small margin between the income and the outgo, but now, when in a twelve month there has been a rise of over twenty-five per cent. in the wholesale prices of the poor man's staples, and much more in the retail rates at which he is compelled to buy, the margin is narrowed down to a very thin and ragged edge. And a bad feature developed by the situation is the complete antagonism of the classes in the contest. This is shown in the statement from the manufacturers that they have prepared themselves throughout the West to resist to the end, all the establishments except one large and a few small ones having definitely agreed to stand together. At the same time it is expected that 16,000 miners will be out of employment, the Miners'Association at Pittsburg having decided, after a two days' session, to order a general strike unless the coal operators cease to employ colored labor. Several thousand in Western Pennsylvania and in Ohio have been on a strike for weeks, and the endeavor to get colored men to take their places is met with the threat of a general strike.

Opinions differ much as to the probable extent or duration of the strike. In the trades unions it is the prevailing opinion that the contest will not last a month. But there is great reason to fear that it will last very much longer, with no result to the workmen except loss and suffering. The state of business gives all the advantages to the employers. In demanding increased wages at this time, with prices falling and trade stagnant, it cannot be said, say some, that the men have justice on their side. According to current reports many of the most intelligent workmen realize this, and are dissatisfied with the action taken by the trades unions. But, as so often happens in such organizations, the most intelligent and industrious are outvoted by others, who refuse to face two or three months of economy until the cost of living declines, and by that refusal subject themselves to months of idleness.

In considering the present labor crisis it would be interesting to ascertain the effect the present immense immigration is having upon the labor of the country, whether to depress it or not, and if legal measures should not be taken to remedy the evil, if that was found to be one. We have reasoned it was just to exclude Mongolians because they are taking the bread out of the mouths of the sons of America. We complained that capital employed the cheaper foreign labor to the exclusion of our own flesh and blood, and called for the intervention of the general government to save us from threatened starvation and poverty. Now if it shall be shown upon investigation that the immense influx of European immigrants is taken advantage of by remorseless capitalists to lower the wages of American citizens, will not justice suggest that a barrier be erected against them, similar to that we have placed between us and the Chinese? This question is forced to the surface by every strike, and the more general they are the more prominent will it become, until the government is compelled to act upon it.

GUITEAU'S CASE SETTLED.

It is gratifying to know that the case of the assassin Guiteau is finally settled, and that there is nothing now but the hanging to be done to complete the punishment of that conglomerate of evil—the disturber of the world's peace. In the justice of the punishment the world will concur. The only complaint we have heard is regret that it was not sooner, and, if possible, severer. A certainty of punishment is the only good thing to apply to the vicious and lawless.

YESTERDAY'S SPECTACLE.

The Democratic primaries yesterday revealed in a greater degree than has yet been visible on the surface the rottenness of Democratic politics. No more disgraceful scenes have ever been witnessed upon the streets of this fair city thane were enacted yesterday. Gambrinus was king and held sway over the occasion. Riot and tumult was the order and bad blood flowed freely. And this was not the worst feature. Money was used by the quantity and indiscriminately with scarcely more than a feint at concealing the fact. Sums varying from fifty cents to five dollars were paid for votes, and not alone were there unprincipled and unamerican men corrupt enough to dispense the coin, but there were plenty of the same ilk to disgrace their manhood and disgrace their country by accepting the bribe. The spectacle was a most humiliating one. It saddens the heart and grieves the soul of all honest men, and makes one hide his head in shame and sorrow that mankind has so fallen. It was remarked by some of the honest Democrats viewing the scene: "This day's work has lost the Democracy many a vote." So it has. Tracing this matter to its sonrce, from whence comes this corruption fund? It cannot reasonably be expected that a man who has no vital interest in the result would display such liberality. Then can an honest man vote for the party or the individual that countenances and abets such an outrageous trampling upon morality and justice? We think not, and the Republican ranks will receive many a recruit from the effect of yesterday's disgraceful proceedings.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. L. F. Scott, the popular clerk at the Cosmopolitan Hotel, will leave in about a week for a trip to Yosemite. His place during his absence will be filled by Mr. E. E. Thompson, late of the Transcontinental at Colton.

THE PRIMARIES.

At the Polls and How Matters were Conducted.

The polls for the Democratic primary elections were opened in this city early yesterday morning, and the work was prosecuted with vigor all day, the party undoubtedly polling its full vote. Particularly in the second ward, which had its headquarters at the Court House, was there the most disorder prevailing, several combats occurring during the day, and requiring the constant presence of several policemen to preserve peace. The contest between the "Ross" and "Sepulveda" tickets was decidedly warm. That money was used to influence votes there can be no doubt, although it might be hard to get any to give their private transactions away. One said he had been working hard all day for a certain candidate and had not received a dime. Another was observed to give a negro some cash immediately after the latter had voted; of course it had no connection with the voting. Others openly boasted of having received coin for their votes. The election in the city went about twenty-five votes for Sepulveda and seven for Ross, and stands as follows: First Ward, five delegates; Second, eleven; Third, seven; all went for Sepulveda. The Fourth Ward, with five delegates, went for Ross, while the Fifth ward gives two delegates to Ross and two to Sepulveda. The highest number of votes, 501, was cast in the Second ward. The First ward had 385 votes. The Ross adherents acknowledge their defeat in town, but claim a big majority in the country. When the Republicans scoop them next November they will all be sorry for such a waste of energy and "sinews" as they displayed yesterday.

Santa Ana Primaries.

[Special to the TIMES.]

SANTA ANA, May 6—9:30 P. M.—One hundred and twenty-three votes were cast at the Democratic primaries here today. Six delegates were elected, those favoring Sepulveda receiving a majority of twenty-seven.

A Sad Accident.

Yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, a most distressing accident happened to an old gentleman named De Vor. He was hauling gravel for W. H. Workman, and was working the gravel pit at the head of Short street, just north of the old cemetery, when the bank caved in on him, crushing and mangling his right leg from the knee down in the most horrible manner. The poor man was placed on a truck and brought to the court house, where Captain Cuddy transferred him to his home on Boyle Heights. Doctors Nadeau, Hannon and Sawyer attended the suffering man, and amputated the leg just above the knee. De Vor had lost a great deal of blood, and is very weak. The physicians left him quiet. De Vor is about sixty years of age, and has a wife.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

Guiteau is Unmoved at the Failure of Reed's Last Effort.

It is thought Congress will Adjourn about July 10th—Mysterious Shooting at Agua Mansa.

[Associated Press Dispatches.]

WASHINGTON, June, 6.—Guiteau received with outward composure the announcement of the failure of the last effort of his counsel to secure a rehearing of his case. He proceeded to denounce the court in bank as cowards and cranks, and said God had revealed to him that he was to be taken care of. God, he said, acts through human agencies, and President Arthur is to be the agent to save him, if necessary. Reed has not yet given up the case. He contemplates further action, but declines to announce its nature beforehand.

NOMINATIONS.

The President sent the following nominations to the Senate to-day: Geo. P. Pomeroy to be agent and Consul-General of the United States at Cairo; E. T. Brulatour, of Louisiana, to be Secretary of Legation at Paris; Recles G. Vanriper, Consul at Moscow; Wallard S. Hickox, Receiver of Public Moneys at Durango, Colorado; Daniel L. Sheeba, Register of the U. S. Land Office at Durango, Colorado.

CONTESTED SEAT.

The House Election Committee declare vacant the contested Alabama seat of Smith vs. Shelly.

CONGRESS TO ADJOURN JULY 10TH.

CHICAGO, June 6.—Specials from Washington say the general impression now is that Congress will adjourn about the 10th of July. The House manifests a disposition to go to work, and as the Senate keeps up, the work will probably be got through within about a month. There is little prospect of any large enterprises, such as the improvement of the Navy or the Inter-Oceanic ship canal getting through.

Michigan Greenbackers.

DETROIT, June 6.—The Greenback State Convention will meet at Grand Rapids August 23d, to nominate a State ticket.

Corner Stone Laid.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The corner stone of the new Produce Exchange building has been laid.

A Steamer Blows up.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 6.—The steamer Evansville blew up this morning. The mate, Owen E. More, was fatally injured and the fireman and ten others fatally scalded. No passengers were injured. Engineer Baker, the mate and three negroes and two hogsheads of tobacco were blown from amidships into the river. The boat drifted and caught fire, but the flames were easily extinguished. The fireman and ash puller were wounded fatally.

All About it.

POCAHONTAS, Ark., June 6. — Our town is now in ashes.

No Change in the Strike.

PITTSBURG, June 5.—The iron workers' situation is without any material change.

COAST DISPATCHES.

The Immigration Association's Semi-Annual Report.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 6.—The Immigration Association held its first semi-annual meeting to-day. The report of the President was favorable. Plats of Government lands in Mendocino, San Luis Obispo and Sonoma are completed. Those of Shasta and Santa Cruz are nearly finished in those counties. The records show about 2,350,000 acres of surveyed Government land open to entry and settlement. There are already about 250,000 acres that have been personally examined, and the association possesses sufficient information to locate probably one thousand families, giving to each one hundred and sixty acres. Late reports from the officer in the field are most encouraging. About nine hundred applications have been made for homes. The expediency of sending an agent to Castle Garden was suggested.

THE DRUIDS.

The Grand Grove of Druids met today, one hundred and twenty representatives present. The report of the Noble Grand Arch shows no increase in membership during the past year, but a healthy financial growth.

Shooting at Colton.

COLTON, June 6.—Yesterday evening about 5 o'clock a mysterious shooting occurred at Agua Mansa, about one mile from this place. Two children, i Josefa Salazar and Secilia Jaramillo, about fourteen and twelve years of age, were planting onions on the ranch of Juan Salazar, the father of the oldest girl. There was a shotgun discharged from a brush fence. The shot struck the oldest girl in the index finger of the left hand and seriously wounding Secilia in both hands and throat. Drs. F. P. Troxell and Ozias were called upon and dressed the wounds of the children and finding it necessary to amputate two forefingers and thumb of the left hand of Secilia Jaramillo. The shooting has caused a great deal of excitement among the Spanish population of Agua Mansa, but as yet no clue to the perpetrator can be had, although the authorities are looking the matter up.

A new parsonage has just been completed for the Rev. Mr. Peterson, pastor of the M. E. Church. The hay crop is good but grain poor. Corn will be above the average, and fruits equal to the best yield ever known. Everthing very satisfactory on the whole.

Carlos Cruz disturbed the peace of somebody, and gave bonds in Judge Fisher's Court yesterday for appearance this morning for that offense at 10 o'clock.

George Barnhart, arrested Sunday on a telegram from San Francisco, was discharged Monday evening on a writ of habeas corpus brought before Judge Howard.

"See the mighty hosts advancing, Satan leading on," thought a pious-minded TIMES reporter yesterday, as he saw the hosts of Democracy falling to the magnetic "bar'l."

A lively runaway occurred on Main street yesterday afternoon. A team of Nick Corvarrubias ran away, the buggy colliding with a truck and getting badly smashed. The horse was caught a little further on.

The fire Saturday night, in the vicinity of Pico and Pearl streets, was a small frame dwelling house, which was the subject of dispute in a law suit, and hence the fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

The night-blooming cereus, after a delay of several weeks, bloomed last Sunday evening at Mr. Weinhold's floral garden on Wilmington street. Its leaves were white and resembled the feathers of a pigeon. There are two more buds on the same plant that are expanding, and will soon bloom.

John Kelly, the famous old pioneer violinist is now in this city, and it is probable that he may give an entertainment before leaving. Mr. Kelly has brought joy to many a mining camp and village in the early days of California by the magic of his elbow, and he has lost none of his cunning.

The fishing in the San Gabriel river is said to be better this year than for many years. The reason assigned for the finy tribe being so plentiful is that there has been no high water or freshest to wash them out or disturb them for several years past, and they have multiplied very numerously.

To judge from the demand for powdered sulphur, owners of vineyards are wide awake to the necessity of protecting their vines from disease. The American Cash Store continues to roll out barrel after barrel of the drug at the reduced price of 4¼ cents per lb. in barrel lots, placing the remedy within reach of all.

There seems to be a general sentiment among property owners along the line of Sand street in favor of its being opened from Fort street to Bunker Hill avenue. This is the next street north of Temple and running parallel with it. Its opening would enhance the value of property in that vicinty and be a great convenience to the residents of that neighborhood.

Burning Brick—Big Well.

Gen. P. Banning and Tom Hayes have just completed the burning of a kiln of brick on the mesa north of Wilmington. This is the first experiment undertaken in that vicinity, and it has proved very satisfactory. Preparations are now being made to burn another kiln. A large quantity of those made will be used to wall an immense well now being dug near Gen. Banning's residence. The well is thirty feet in diameter at the surface and is already about thirty-five feet deep. The supposition is that the water from this well is to supply the huge tank at the San Pedro railroad wharf.

Subdividing the American Colony.

Charles Healy, with his force of surveyors, is now at work subdividing that part of the American Colony tract fronting on the bay into farm lots. An artesian well will be bored near the bay on the town site within a few weeks. As soon as the well has been completed arrangements will be made to accommodate summer camping parties, the beach in that vicinity being admirably situated for that purpose and the bathing unsurpassed.

Reception.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Fisher will tender them a reception to-night in Good Templar's hall, when a pleasant, social time will be spent.

DOG CATCHING.

A Mark of Distinguishment for the Author of the System.

The System Denounced as Tending to Demoralize and make Hoodlums of our Youths—Sensible Talk.

EDITOR TIMES:—The man or set of men who were the first to devise the means of enforcing the dog ordinance at present in vogue in Los Angeles should be awarded some mark of public, recognition. A leather medal with ears a yard and a half long would be good. I have arrived at this conclusion for several reasons. First, because I question the right or the power of the municipal government to convert the streets of the city into a school for the propagation of either lawlessness or hoodlumism. Second, because I question the power of the Chief of Police, although backed by the order of the Council, to turn loose upon the streets a crowd of irresponsible boys with instructions to disturb the peace of the city and endanger the lives of citizens who may happen to be driving spirited horses in the neighborhood of such an unusual scene as the strangling of a dog in the public streets. Third, because I question the right of the city to jeopardize the safety of its stranglers, who may happen to be killed or maimed in the unlawful attempt to take a dog from beside his master; for they wear no badges of authority (nor is there any such prescribed) and men have the right to use necessary force to protect person or property from unlawful attack. Fourth, because I deny the right of the city government to override the State law for the prevention of cruelty to animals by authorizing young ruffians to drag even dogs along the streets in a manner that subjects them to the torture of strangulation, as I also deny its right to subject them to a process of starvation for days after their incarceration. Upon the whole the system is a disgrace; and if the dog ordinance cannot be enforced, except in this way, it had better be repealed.

CHINATOWN.

A General Cleaning up and Rehabilitating of the Place.

Major Henry C. Dane and Mr. A. K. Hollis, of San Francisco, accompanied by Captain Cuddy and a TIMES reporter, made the tour of Chinatown yesterday, and found it marvelously cleansed from its physical filth in comparison with a few weeks ago when the TIMES gave a thorough expose of its condition. The door and back yards were thoroughly swept, the floors were scrubbed, the bedrooms looked clean, and everything presented quite a neat appearance. The cesspools had been removed, and the sewers repaired. There was also some more light and ventilation, and where obnoxious odors had saluted the olfactory nerves of the visitors they were now absent. The improvements visible everywhere were astonishing. As the party stood at the shrine of Quong Koong, the Deity of Chinatown and the TIMES reporter explained to Major Dane that according to the account of the Chinese priests, that Q. Koong, Esq., some two thousand years ago was "a heap good Chinaman, no foolee anybody," and that now he was worshipped as a God, to which the Major replied, "nothing more than what we do ourselves." The different Chinese merchants were very particular to make a good impression upon the visitors, and were liberal in presents of cigars, but it is very doubtful if the impression were deep. One thing certainly observed on this trip was that the cubic air ordinance needed enforcement.

BISHOP MORA'S ACCIDENT.

The Report as Published Sunday Morning Correct.

A TIMES reporter interviewed Father Pujol yesterday, and received further information about Bishop Mora's accident. He was traveling near Lemoore, Tulare county, with Father Carrasco, in a spring wagon. As they approached an Indian rancheria some dogs ran out, and their barking frightened the horses, which started up with such violence as to throw both the fathers out on the ground with the wagon seat upon them. Bishop Mora's head struck the ground so hard that he was knocked senseless. He was taken to Hanford, where he now is. His brain is affected, and he is otherwise seriously injured. A telegram was received Sunday afternoon saying he was better, and a letter came yesterday giving a detailed account of the whole accident.

Grand Larceny.

Early yesterday morning William Yueneart had $150 stolen from him while asleep in the back room of a saloon on Commercial street opposite the White House. In the afternoon officer Horner arrested a man named John Hayes on a warrant charging him with the crime. Hayes had $55.65 at the time. He will be examined to-day.

Ship Building at Wilmington.

A schooner is now being built at Wilmington, to be called the Barbara Ellen. She will be completed by the middle of June, and is designed to carry passengers from San Pedro to Catalina Island. She is 48 feet on deck, 13 feet beam, is provided with an 8x12 feet cabin, and will carry forty passengers.

University Social.

A social was enjoyed at the residence of J. M. Stewart on Figueroa street, last night, by the members and friends of University Methodist Church. About eighty people, young and old, were present. Singing and refreshments constituted the programme of the evening.

PASADENA NOTES.

A Ladies' Aid Society—The Union Temperance League.

A Ladies' Aid Society has recently been organized in connection with the Methodist Church of Pasadena. It is already proving itself to be an energetic and useful body. Saturday evening, May 27th, the members gave a festival at School House Hall, which was a grand success. The hall was filled with a very social throng of all ages. Bountiful refreshments were served, consisting of strawberries, ice cream, cake, coffee, sandwiches, candy and lemonade. A brief musical and literary programme spiced the entertainment. There were solos by Misses Rose Werner and Florence Royce, a song by Master George Rice, singing by a quartette, and a very amusing recitation by Mr. R. F. Bishop of San Gabriel. The whole affair was apparently much enjoyed by all, and afforded an excellent opportunity for the people to come together in an entirely informal manner and to cultivate a better acquaintance with each other. It was not one of the least satisfactory items to the ladies of the society that they increased their fund to the amount of seventy-three dollars.

Picnic facilities are superb in this vicinity, and although they are well improved by some, the mass of our busy people enjoy them altogether too little. Among the picnics that have recently afforded delightful recreation for young and old was one of the Methodist Sunday School at Oak Grove, and one of the Presbyterian at Wilson's Grove.

No event in Pasadena for a long time has surpassed in enthusiasm and excellence the entertainment given by the Union Temperance League on the evening of May 30th at the Methodist church. The house was crowded, although there was at the same time a sensational show at School House Hall, an account of which has already been published. The next monthly meeting of the League will be at the Presbyterian church. This organization is a move in the right direction. It unites all the temperance forces of Pasadena, and by enlisting our own varied and excellent local talent it is destined to be a power in the community. Pasadena is so temperate that it has heretofore been altogether too temperate in temperance agitation, but now the people are waking up, and it is to be hoped that the temperance work of the churches, the Good Templar lodge and this League will, in spite of the wine grower, keep our beautiful colony in the universal practice of the grand virtues of sobriety, order, morality, and obedience to law.

The Presbyterian Church has recently received some desirable and tasty internal improvements; among them a new arrangement of the pews so as to afford more sittings, also new furnishing for the pulpit and platform. Both churches are well attended and are having good prosperity.

We have recently lost by death one of our best citizens, Mr. Jacob Weingarth, who came here nearly three years ago from Shelbyville, Indiana, and had started a fine fruit ranch. He leaves a widow and two children and the universal respect of the community.

Too Much Bug Juice.

A man named Armstrong on his way home to the country on Monday night, and evidently well laden with forty-rod, drove his team over a steep hill on the east side of the river, the whole outfit tumbling into the zanja at the bottom of the hill. A Spanish boy in the vicinity hearing the noise went to the man's rescue, pulling him out of the water and then reporting the accident to the Chief of police. Officer Horner and Doctor Hannon proceeded to the scene of the accident and found the man considerably bruised but no bones broken. They brought him to the city jail where he remained over night. He departed for home yesterday feeling decidedly used up.

MANUFACTURES.

Advantages of Los Angeles as a Manufacturing Point.

Report of the Committee Special of the Society for the Promotion of Manufactures.

The awakened interest in manufacturing industries manifested throughout the State of California is one of the most hopeful signs and surest indications of a permanent and prosperous growth in the future. When first settled as a State it attracted the attention of the whole world as a country wonderfully prolific in gold mines, and although less than a third of a century has elapsed since then, it has poured into the coffers of the commercial world over $1,500,000,000 of the precious metal. Among the immense crowds that poured into California from every part of the globe, none dreamed of the agricultural and horticultural possibilities of the future; but strange though it may seem, the fabulous sums taken from the gold mines have been surpassed by the marvellous yield of her boundless farms, which has in turn been eclipsed by the abundance and diversity of her luscious fruits, thus being justly entitled to the appellation of "Golden State." It is evident to every observant mind, however, that although the record of development for the past quarter of a century challenges the admiration of the world, being without parallel in its history, the coming quarter of a century will witness a growth unprecedented in the history of civilization, in view of the fact that manufacturing industries, the most important and necessary auxiliary to commerce, are now receiving the careful consideration they deserve, throughout the State.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Can reasonably expect the largest proportionate share of that growth, for many reasons. 1st.—Its unequaled fertility of soil, wonderful diversity of products, and superb climate. 2.—The advent of through communication with the Eastern, Western and Southern States, via the Southern route and its connections. 3.—The recent improvement of Wilmington harbor, whereby it is now the most important port on the Pacific Coast outside of San Francisco. The census of 1880 shows that Southern California has grown faster than any other part of the State, and that the growth of Los Angeles county has been the most rapid of the seven southern counties. The permanent development of Los Angeles city and county has been greater during the past two years, however, than at any time since their settlement, the city increasing from about 11,000 to 17,000, and the county at large from 34,000 to almost 45,000, comprising a very desirable class of settlers. The Resources of California (a San Francisco monthly journal), in speaking of Los Angeles county says: "This is the richest, most prolific and prosperous county in Southern California. It has every variety of soil and climate to be found in this part of the State, has attracted much attention in the East, and is now receiving a large immigration, consequently is increasing in wealth and population more than any other section of the State. On the southwest it is bounded by the Pacific ocean with a coast line of nearly one hundred miles. The larger portion of the county is parallelogram, being about seventy miles from north to south, leaving a triangle in the southeast portion, the northern line of which equals seventy miles and the eastern forty miles. The county, therefore, contains about 5,600 square miles or 3,600,000 acres; (this being over two-thirds the size of Massachusetts.)

PRODUCTS.

Corn, barley, potatoes, wheat, rye, beans, castor beans, alfalfa, tobacco, flax, hemp and cotton, have been tested and prove a success. Of fruits, the grape, pear, peach, plum, nectarine, cherry, apricot, fig, orange, lemon, lime, walnut, and all the small fruits and berries grow luxuriantly and yield largely. This is the great orange section of the State. The raising of sheep, cattle, horses and hogs enter largely into the farm husbandry of Los Angeles county. The bee interest is also becoming very important, especially along the foothills of the San Gabriel range of mountains.

LOS ANGELES VALLEY

Is the most productive, probably, in the State, and is destined at no distant day to teem with a dense population. This valley is over fifty miles long and about twenty wide, so that it contains 1,000 square miles, or 640,000 acres. Of this land 160,000 may be classed as grazing, 160,000 grape and semi-tropical fruit land and 320,000 acres superior corn lands, equally adapted for barley, rye, oats, millet, potatoes, hops, etc. It is estimated that at least 500,000 acres of this land can be irrigated. It lies most favorably for purposes of irrigation, being a level plain with a fall of ten feet per mile in a southerly direction. Many very large ditches are already constructed in this valley leading the water from the rivers and many others are being dug at the present time. The supply of artesian water in this valley is also the most prolific yet discovered in the State, flowing wells being obtained over an immense area at depths ranging from forty to two hundred feet. The soil, as a rule, is a rich, sandy loam, easily worked and very productive. For richness of soil, variety of productions, favorable climate, location, and in many other respects this is by far the richest county in Southern California, especially in the production of semi-tropical fruits. It is not extravagant to say that there are one million orange trees in orchard form in this county.

THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES

Has surprised every one in the rapid progress she has made for the last few years, being now the fourth in the State, ranking next to Sacramento. She is steadily moving on; new improvements are everywhere visible, and the city is extending in every direction, on the hills and out in the valley.

RAILROADS.

This is the great railroad center of Southern California. The Southern Pacific from San Francisco, with its newly opened Southern route; the various branches to Wilmington, Anaheim and Santa Ana, also Santa Monica, with a prospective road to San Diego, gives splendid facilities for travelers and freights. All the conveniences and opportunities afforded by a city are found here; and current expenses of living, etc., are as moderate in this city as in any other part of California." The picture is a glowing one, but certainly not overdrawn. The rapid growth of the county's viticultural interests alone is well evidenced in the fact that 4,800,000 grape vines were planted during the past season—truly a magnificent showing. It is probable that within the next decade a new State to be called Southern California will be formed of the seven Southern counties, with

LOS ANGELES AS ITS CAPITAL,

Thus insuring to this city many important and permanent advantages that will materially enhance her commercial greatness. The opening of the Southern route has completely changed the commercial position of Los Angeles. When entirely dependent upon the San Francisco market, prior to the extension of the Southern Pacific road east through Arizona, its growth and that of the county was necessarily slow and circumscribed, and the influx of settlers from the East comparatively small, owing to the jealousy and misrepresentation of people living in the northern part of the State. But the extension of the S. P. R.R. from Los Angeles through Arizona, simultaneously with the discovery of that Territory's wonderful mining resources, developed a new order of things, as every mile of road built increased the extent of country dependent upon Los Angeles for supplies of every description, until it has now attained in volume and extent of territory the commerce of an empire, embracing not only Arizona, but New Mexico, Western Texas, and to some extent Sonora in Mexico. Owing to the increased facilities for shipment to Eastern points afforded by the Southern Pacific road and its connections, and the reduction of rates to almost one-half those formerly charged on the northern route, Los Angeles is not only enabled to give San Francisco

THE COLD SHOULDER,

But also to successfully compete with that point for all the trade of Southern California and Arizona. San Francisco merchants have already conceded that in order to retain their trade in Southern California and Arizona they must open branch houses in Los Angeles, and negotiations are now in progress for the leasing of commodious business houses in this city for that purpose. The evident determination of the Boston capitalists owning the A. T. & Santa Fe R. R. to push forward to completion their extension, with termini at Guaymas, on the Gulf of California, and San Diego, in Southern California, has aroused the shrewd managers of the Central and Southern Pacific Company to the necessity of providing a first-class seaport in this latitude. They have selected Wilmington harbor for that purpose, and within three months ship and rail will be together at San Pedro, five miles below Wilmington. This will doubtless be followed by its being made the terminal point of a line of steamers running to and from Australia, New Zealand, China, Japan and the Sandwich Islands, as a counter movement to the rumored intention of placing a line of steamers in operation between Guaymas and Australian ports. The Utah Southern and Atlantic and Pacific roads will soon connect with this city, and thus form with existing lines a magnificent system of railroads.

THE THROUGH CONNECTION

Of the S. P. R. R. with New Orleans to be completed by the 1st of September, with its own line of steamers connecting with Liverpool, will exert an important influence on the future of Los Angeles, creating an unlimited market for its productions and bringing to Southern California a desirable class of immigrants at about $35 each from Liverpool to Los Angeles. The projected branch of the S. P. R. R. to a point on the Gulf of California, to compete with the A., T. & S. F. road to Guaymas will also open up a market to Southern California productions in Sonora and other portions of Mexico. England, France and Germany now monopolize the foreign trade of our sister republic. Merchants of those countries, according to their established custom, secured a foothold in that country by sending junior members of the firm to reside there as permanent agents, and thus familiarize themselves with the habits and wants of the people. The few American houses established in Mexico are doing well, and with the present unprecedented railroad development under the management of Americans, added to the prevalence of the Spanish language in Southern California and Mexico, and the common sympathy existing between the people of the two sections, the opportunity now offered to Los Angeles merchants and manufacturers of securing a permanent foothold in Mexico seems especially promising. As the terminus of

A TRANS-CONTINENTAL RAILROAD

Connecting at Wilmington with Australia, New Zealand, China and Japan, the position of Los Angeles will always be unrivaled, possessing as it does the shortest line across the continent within the United States, and through the most eligible pass, geographically, in the whole range of the Sierras. When the fact is realized that manufacturing industries are the most valuable adjunct to commerce, it will readily be observed from the foregoing remarks, that Los Angeles is admirably situated as a distributing point for manufactured goods, especially so, in view of the fact that within the territory subservient to it is a diversity and unlimited quantity of raw materials unsurpassed anywhere, many of which, now going to waste, would be an important source of revenue if utilized. The extent of territory which can be rendered commercially subservient to Los Angeles, depends upon her ability to furnish goods at lower rates than competing points, hence the importance of inaugurating extensive and diversified manufacturing industries. The

VARIED LIST OF PRODUCTS

Already mentioned justifies the assertion that no portion of the United States possesses a larger and more diversified character of raw materials, and the fact that every manufacturing industry now in operation in Los Angeles is doing well justifies the assertion also that the opportunities offered in this city to those desiring to engage in manufacturing business are unsurpassed anywhere. Space will not permit giving (as contemplated by the committee) a list of the manufacturing industries now in operation. However, it can safely be asserted that more of every kind already represented could be operated successfully, especially fruit canning establishlishments, woolen mills, agricultural implement manufactories, carriage and wagon manufactories, pork and beef packing houses. Among the manufactories not represented in this city which could by proper management be operated successfully are

THE FOLLOWING:

Oil refineries, linseed, castor, neatsfoot, and lard oil factories, smelting works, rolling mills, nail works, barbed wire fence factories, stove works, cornice factories, cutlery, glass and white lead works, coffin factories, wood and willow ware, paper, and box factories, tanneries, potteries, ink, match and candle factories, cream tartar works, cotton mills, cheese, cracker, starch and glucose factories, sugar refineries, silk, carpet and oil cloth factories, clothing, boot and shoe, hat and cap, and glove factories, and with a soil admirably adapted for raising flax, hemp and jute, rope factories. The question of fuel is an important one, and has until recently proved a great bugbear in the way of inaugurating manufacturing industries commensurate with the city's natural advantages. With the recent invention of

CRUDE PETROLEUM BURNERS,

However, whereby a vast saving has been effected, that difficulty has been disposed of, satisfactory evidence of which can be seen any day in the foundries of M. S. Baker & Co., Bath & Fosmir, and the coffee and spice mills of G. T. Hanly & Co. With the demonstrated availability of crude petroleum, coupled with the fact that there exists in this and neighboring counties an inexhaustible supply of petroleum, covering 200,000 acres of land, the development of which is merely in its infancy, Los Angeles may with propriety be placed on an equal footing with any point in the Western States as far as fuel is concerned. What the people of this lavishly endowed country will make of it depends on themselves; its advantages are unequaled, but there is an increased duty devolving upon them of subserving these wonderful resources to the progress, civilization and happiness of mankind.

ACTION BROUGHT in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the county of Los Angeles, and the complaint filed in said county of Los Angeles, in the office of the Clerk of said Superior Court.

The People of the State of California send greeting to Jacob M. Rogers, Leonard Ladd and Thomas Williams, Defendants:

You are hereby required to appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the county of Los Angeles, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within ten days (exclusive of the day of service) after the service on you of this Summons—If served within this county; or, if served elsewhere, within thirty days—or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint.

The said action is brought to obtain a decree of this Court for the foreclosure of a certain mortgage described in the said complaint, and executed by the said Jacob M.
